Marine Debris

HN 550 (b)

- “Marine debris” is a vessel or part of a vessel, including a derelict, wreck, hulk, or part of any ship or other watercraft or dilapidated vessel, that is unseaworthy and not reasonably fit or capable of being made fit to be used as a means of transportation by water.

A group of approximately ten children and two adults are seated on a boat. They are all wearing bright orange life jackets. The children are of various ages and ethnicities. The boat is on a body of water, and the background shows a distant shoreline. The overall scene is bright and sunny.

Projected Goals

- Utilize SAVE Grant solely for VTIP.
- Zero abandoned / derelict vessels in marinas or public waterways.
- Provide a safe waterway for commercial vessels and recreational activities.
- Protect delicate marine life and vegetation.
