

Oakland-Alameda Estuary and Shoreline Encampment Briefing

Item 6

January 24, 2024

BCDC Enforcement Committee Meeting

John Creech, Compliance Officer

Adrienne Klein, Principal Enforcement Analyst

Overview

- February 23, 2022, Briefing – Issue Introduced
- February 22, 2023, Briefing – Issue Revisited
- September 27, 2023, Briefing – Update on Estuary Status
- April 24, 2024, Briefing – Bring Cities Back for Update

September 2023 Briefing

- Alameda had no anchor outs nor encampments at the time of the September 2023 briefing
- Alameda applied for $200,000 in SAVE funds for 2024
- Oakland had approximately 20 vessels at the time of September 2023 briefing
- Oakland applied for $170,000 in SAVE funds for 2024
- Oakland had comprehensive plan to address these vessels around December, 2023

Follow-Up from September 2023

- Cities of Oakland and Alameda committed to continuing to regularly coordinate with one another and BCDC staff to resolve remaining issues on Estuary
- Cities committed to keeping EC updated on progress
- Oakland committed to develop and implement a comprehensive plan to clear the Estuary of illegally anchored vessels

Introduce Cities of Alameda and Oakland

- City of Alameda
  - Lieutenant Joshua Crossley, Alameda Police Department
- City of Oakland
  - Joe DeVries, Deputy City Administrator
  - Officer Kaleo Albino, Oakland Police Department
  - LaTonda Simmons, Assistant City Administrator