

Ex Parte Disclosure – Sean Randolph – February 19, 2026

The discussion, conducted over Zoom, focused on the pending application to renew the existing ten-year permit for sand mining in the Bay. This included a review of current sand mining activity, the status of studies required as a condition for the existing permit, current discussions with BCDC staff, review by other agencies, and a discussion of the volume of sand expected to be taken.